

Documentary family photography and portraiture with:

TALIA HERMAN

ABOUT TALIA:

Talia Herman is a Sonoma County-based photographer working in portraiture, documentary and branding. Whether you are looking for maternity sessions, headshots, or a more immersive experience, Talia offers a range of packages - from mini portrait sessions to full-day documentary shoots. Her clients range from global brands like Dove to her friends and neighbors.

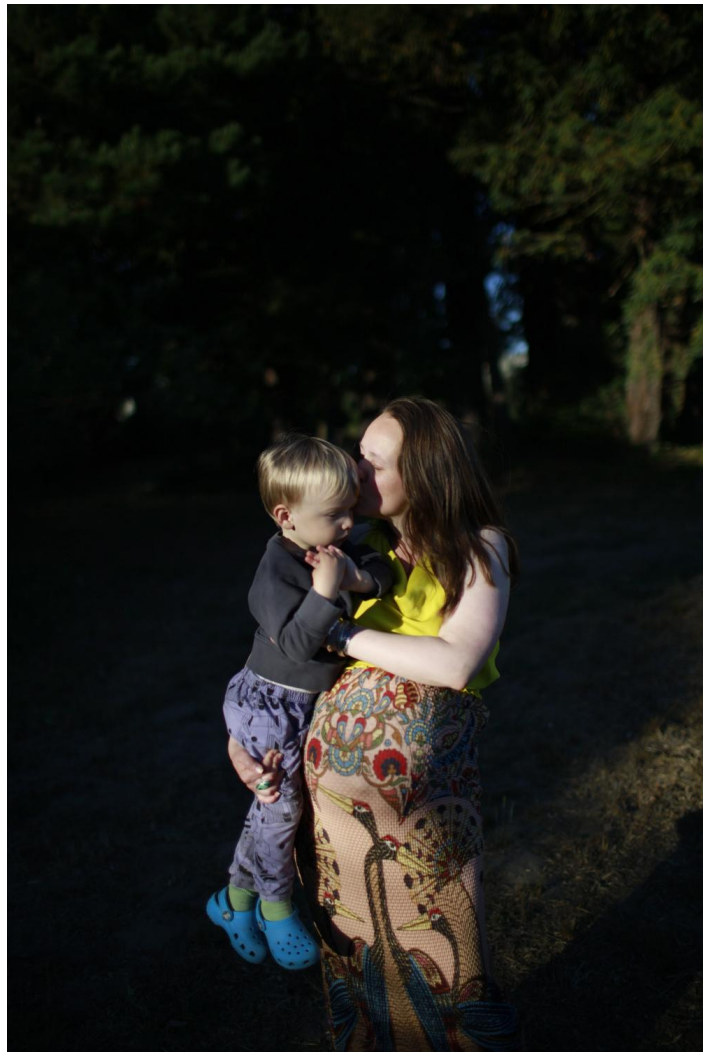

Currently raising two daughters in rural west Sonoma County, Talia is deeply committed to celebrating the magic found in the everyday through her photography. Come as you are. All definitions of family welcomed.

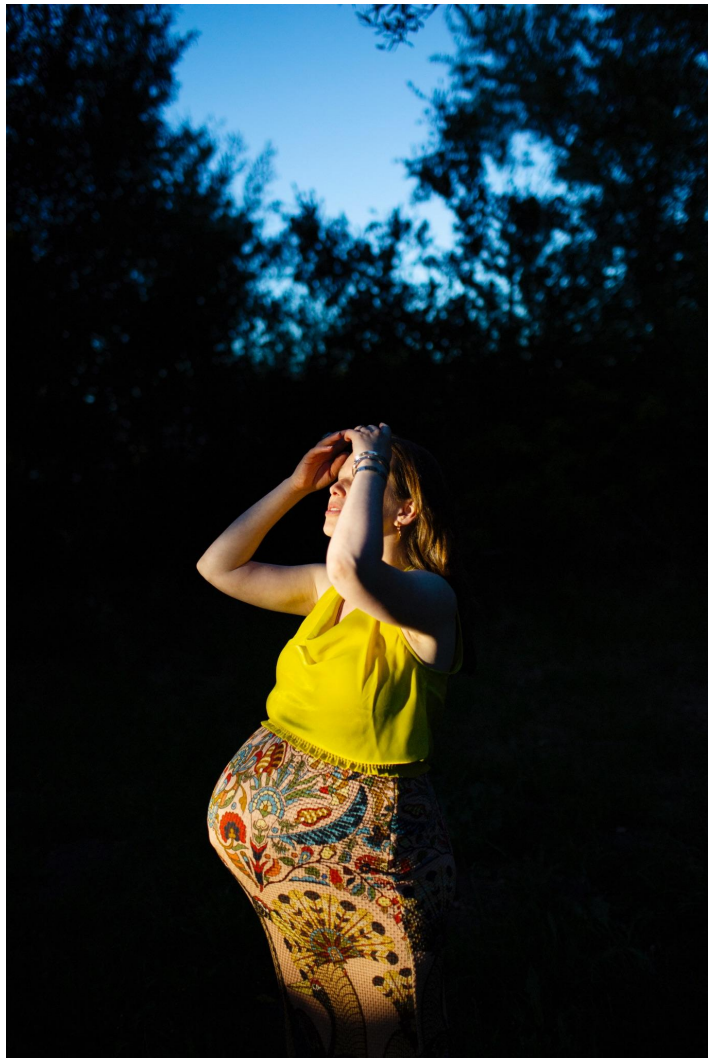

THANK YOU!
